Market leading stain resistance, green plasticisers and low maintenance Evercare surface treatment are just some of the reasons Gerflor Mipolam Symbioz was the ideal flooring choice for the new operating theatres at Melbourne

The theatres are part of the ongoing redevelopment at the Epworth Hospital to provide a world class hospital, with completion date estimated to be 2021.

Silver Thomas Hanley Director, Mark Saunders said the project involves new buildings or major refurbishment of approximately 96,000 sqm of gross building area at an estimated total construction cost of $510 million.

Gerflor's Taralay Uni wall covering also featured in the project.
